

For the next two weeks Civic Club members will sit at tables in front of the bank collecting for Cancer Control. Sierra Madre has gone over the top on all other drives for national health and philanthropy. Should this time.

Incidentally we note that Club members have good looks as well as a good cause. Only human nature to observe that this is an asset.

It is an old truth that the stnman takes a walk on his way off—and now we know what a fireman does. On one of the sunniest, fishingest days last week Fire Chief Heasley was discovered at Andy's station, lovingly going over the engine of the fire truck.

"Pretty, hummm?" he asked from somewhere in the neighborhood of the sixth spark plug. And he didn't mean us.

Robert Hartman, now a benedict—then a bachelor, hit upon the delicious idea of paying for his marriage license in dimes. Came the solemn moment and he began to fish—came up lacking one ten-cent piece and almost lost his bride.

Memo from Advertising Dept. Pratt's Market ad with us last week pulled 95 new customers. The Pratt's now love us and we them. Nice situation.

Memo from Editorial Dept.: Don't carry this thing too far.

The Egg Roll which the Volunteer Firemen put on, was as much fun as ever. And the kids were, per usual, just a jump ahead of the boys in blue.

Seems that last year there was a "gumming" of the spoons for the egg in spoon races. So this year the firemen greased the eggs. Round one. But the kids cracked the ends of the eggs and stuck the spoon inside. Round two. Contest to be continued each Easter as long as there are good-hearted Volunteers and quick-witted kids.

Cloyd Marshall is responsible for the magnificent azalea in the NEWS window. Last week the pictures of the Wistaria Queen and Princesses stopped pedestrian traffic—now our pink blossoms bring ohs and ahs. What will we do if Mr. Marshall sells the azalea? Perhaps put P. L. Bonebrake in the window.

P. S.: He did. And now there's nothing in the window, but the editor so we pulled the blind down.

All hail broke loose on Sierra Madre last Thursday at about 2:15 p. m. Stones big as marbles bounced around on the lawns and fascinated the kids. No damage reported however.

Mrs. Frances Sepulveda Barnes has just had kittens. Three grey, one black. So has Mrs. Melvin Bowman.

Mrs. Bowman, prior to their arrival, had agreed to dole them out to neighbors. Now she weakly says, "Too young to leave their mother."

That, Mrs. Bowman is the best way we know to start a cat collection.

Maybe H. L. Menken said it—(he says most things)—that the only trouble with a kitten was that it grew to be a cat.

Bert Webb at the barber shop is inaugurating a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Poor Fish. Says he, "The State raises trout to stock the streams—and then dumps the poor trout in the streams only the day before fishing season opens. How can a trout get acquainted with his surroundings?"

"No sooner is he there, than 2000 fishermen descend upon him and it's all over. I suggest we just turn the fish over to the fisherman the day before—save the trouble of dumping and catching them."

Publisher's Son Pitches Shot For Record

Otis Chandler, son of Los Angeles Times publisher Norman Chandler and Mrs. Chandler of West Orange Grove, broke the freshman shotput record in a dual track meet from which his college, Stanford, emerged triumphant.

Young Chandler heaved the weight 48 feet, 7 1/2 inches to break the old record of 48 feet, 2 1/2 inches.

Stanford defeated Sacramento, Salinas and Modesto Junior Colleges with a total of 104 1/2 to 54 1/2.

Building Totals Drop in Foothill, Valley Area

A definite recession in building projects for the first quarter of 1947 was marked in building permit reports from Sierra Madre as well as San Gabriel Valley and foothill areas.

Excepting the city of Azusa, March reports show a considerable drop under figures for last year at the same period.

Sierra Madre building permits for March total only $83,905, with a total for the year to date of $174,289. This is a drop of $44,788 from last year's March total of $128,693. Total for the first three months of 1946 was $295,900.

Monrovia's permits for March 1947 are reported at $308,175 against the total for March 1946 of $446,373. Permits were given for 39 new homes.

In Arcadia March permits totalled $565,755. Last year's figures were $1,388,695. Permits were given for 51 new homes.

Included among the 11 permits for new homes in Sierra Madre was one granted to Harland Goldwater, 600 Woodland Drive, who plans to erect a duplex dwelling at a cost of $10,000 at 604 and 606 Holly Trail.

Thor Christensen, residing at the Sierra Madre Hotel, received a permit to place a $14,000 dwelling and garage at 465 Manzanita Avenue.

A $6500 dwelling and garage will be built by Roy E. Griffin at 715 E. Grandview.

Mrs. Charles A. Hall of 181 Vista Circle Drive received a permit for a $6000 dwelling and garage at 124 N. Mountain Trail.

R. M. Thayer of 666 Canyon Crest will build a $6000 dwelling at 325 North Adams. A. V. Bishop of Alhambra received a permit for a $5500 dwelling at 729 Orange Drive; Richard Eyre of 801 Skyland Drive will build a $6000 dwelling at 660 Acacia Avenue.

Frances Robertson Pens Vivid Picture of Vienna

Frances Robertson, daughter of City Clerk and Mrs. Eddie Robertson of East Sierra Madre Blvd., has written her parents of her safe arrival in Sofia, Bulgaria.

garia after a prolonged stay in Vienna, Austria.

Miss Robertson, a Berkeley graduate, has taken up her assignment with Civil Service in Bulgaria.

Snatches from her letter give a vivid description of post-war Europe:

"As for a city, Vienna is wonderful! Its people are well-educated and modern and its women beautiful. I never thought a place could be noted for a certain trait, but the majority of the young women around here have similar facial features... well-formed noses and mouths, curly hair and long lashes and oh! such eyes!

Most Austrians, since they are paid so painfully little, derive a good deal of their livelihood through black market. Those who work for American Forces are generally better off than the others. They are given small pay and one hot meal a day which to them is sustenance.

Some of the best paid workers are the musicians of whom there are many. For instance Mr. Z. who plays piano at the G. H. Hotel. He uses six fingers. Five on the left hand and one on the right. Shrapnel tore the

Community Fund Drive Set May 1st

Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club will conduct its annual Community Fund Drive about May 1, it was announced yesterday by Robert Green, president.

Harry A. Lange, past president of Kiwanis, has been appointed drive chairman.

In preparation for the drive, the service club has requested the Recreation Commission of the city to audit the budgets of those agencies who apply for funds from the Community Fund.

According to President Green, an audit is customary in all areas where Community Chest is the collecting agency.

Mrs. J. Stadden Miller, chairman of the Recreation Commission, said that responsibility for the audit had been accepted. She requested townspeople to send in to the Commission any questions concerning any of the agencies which receive funds.

Agencies which have applied for funds to date include: Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire, Toy Loan and YMCA.

Services for Louis Corti Close Colorful Life

Louis Feley Corti passed away at his home, "Casa Serena", 58 W. Mira Monte Avenue, Thursday morning, April 3, after an intermittent illness of four years. Funeral services, with the Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard officiating, were held at Grant Chapel, Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Mrs. Randolph Wood sang Mr. Corti's favorite hymn. Interment is in the Sierra Madre Cemetery.

A widowed sister and her two married daughters survive him in Turin, Italy.

Previous to taking up his residence in Sierra Madre on retirement, in August, 1941, Mr. Corti had for seventeen years been Instructor in Romance Languages at Bard-St. Stephen's College at Annandale-on-Hudson, N. Y. His friend and colleague from the Literature and Language faculty of the same institution, Edward Voorhees, accompanied him to Sierra Madre on leave of absence. Mr. Voorhees later resigned and has since remained with Professor Corti, who had no relatives in America.

Born at Como, Italy, in 1868, of Spanish-Italian parentage, Mr. Corti had a varied and colorful life. After studying languages in Paris for two years, still under twenty, Mr. Corti migrated to the Argentine, where he married and engaged in business. On the early death of his young Spanish wife he took their infant daughter to his sister in Italy and came to the United States in 1893.

He next became part-owner of one of the great cattle ranches near Colima, Mexico, but gave it up after eighteen months. Returning to the United States he

Ware and Ware Double Up In Magazines

The very productive brother-act of Ware and Ware, Harlan and Leon, this week put Sierra Madre in the "slicks".

To take it out of the vernacular, the two favorite sons (and brothers) are represented in four national magazines at the same time.

Harlan Ware, of Arbolada, appears in Collier's with a neat number entitled "Thursday is for Love" and in Good Housekeeping with "Homecoming", a novel.

His brother, Leon, of West Orange Grove, adds to the readability of the Saturday Evening Post with "Soft Summer Danger" and another in Liberty.

MONTH-LONG COUNCIL DISCUSSION ABRUPTLY TERMINATED BY MOVE

With a surprise third act, the curtain apparently was rung down Tuesday night on any immediate sale of the upper Hastings Ranch and subsequent possibilities of annexation of that area by Sierra Madre.

Appearing before the City Council as that body prepared to discuss annexation problems with Lou A. Sears, Altadena development promoter, John R. and Frank A. Murphy, part owners of the acreage, revealed that it was "not for sale".

John Murphy, acting as spokesman, said that Mr. Sears had made an offer for the 640 acre tract, but that offer had been rejected.

"We never have offered the property for sale," he said. "We have no present intentions of selling the upper Hastings Ranch at any price."

Mr. Sears, who appeared in the Council chambers shortly after this climactic development expressed himself as completely surprised.

"I ask 48 hours," Mr. Sears said, "to discover what the real situation is."

Tuesday afternoon, before the Council meeting, Edwin W. Pauley, of Petrol Corp., one of the owners of the Ranch, told the NEWS that an offer made by Sears about a month ago had been rejected. Asked if that move would preclude Sears reappearing before the owners with another offer, Mr. Pauley said it did not.

Such a prospect, however, seemed dim after the emphatic denial issued by John Murphy. The Murphy brothers, who hold the upper Hastings Ranch along with Mr. Pauley and his brother, Harold Pauley, Gladys C. and Fritz B. Burns and F. A. Pike, were introduced to the Council by Harrison Baker who originally negotiated the sale of the land and is presently developing the lower half between Foothill Blvd. and Sierra Madre Blvd., which has been annexed by Pasadena. Mr. Baker is a member of the Pasadena Planning Commission.

Thus, apparently, ends the month-long drama in which the City Council, Mr. Sears, water, taxation and schools all played large parts.

On March 11, Sears and his vice-president, R. W. Calloway, met with the City Planning Commission, Councilman Vinton A. Hoegge, City Attorney Thomas A. Reynolds and City Engineer Joseph Hurley to investigate possibilities of Sierra Madre's annexation of the land lying between Michillinda and Sierra Madre Ave., Sierra Madre Blvd. and the mountains.

Mr. Sears said he was "negotiating the purchase" of the property at $1,250,000.

Councilman Hoegge brought the proposition before the Council where consensus was that lack of additional developed water was the chief obstacle in the way of annexation. As a direct result of the meeting City Clerk Eddie Robertson was with Arcadia City Council for further discussion of a cooperative application for water from the Big Santa Anita Canyon Flood Control Project.

The two cities already had held discussions on the securing of additional water, but were awaiting reports from both City Attorneys.

The double Council meeting was held March 26. At that time City Attorneys of both communities were instructed to apply to the County Flood Control District, the State Division of Water Resources and the San Gabriel Valley Protective Association for permission for allocation of water from the Big Santa Anita.

Costs of obtaining the water would be shared equally, it was reportedly agreed, and after its diversion to Sierra Madre

Arcadia Lumber Co. Explains Price Reduction Move

Commenting on their advertisement in this issue announcing the reduction of lumber prices, L. A. Beckstrom of the Arcadia Lumber Co. offers the following explanation.

"One of the major Los Angeles lumber yards announced through the newspapers within the past few days that they have voluntarily reduced their selling prices of lumber to help reduce building costs.

This action is highly commendable and we too have reduced our selling prices even though our buying costs do not justify this reduction.

The retail lumber yards, owned or operated by sawmills, have a better opportunity to adjust prices than independent yards which are forced to pay the mill prices which are still unchanged.

Nevertheless, we are glad to

BALLING BABY TALK

BY MAXINE BALLING

DISCOURSE ON DIAPERS... the "disposable" kind. I can remember when diapers were just diapers, and that was that. When Mom went visiting she lugged a whole supply of diapers, et cetera, along. Now when the modern mother takes a trip she just stops in at the Balling Baby Shop for a package of Chix "Disposies", to take along. (Now if any of you snoopers are listening in on this, I suppose I'll have to explain that "Disposies" are waterproof pants with an absorbent filler). Anyway, this nice summer weather has induced lots of people to start tripping off in their cars, and we notice a definite increase in sales of "Disposies."

THEN THERE ARE "CHUX". I suppose they were named "Chux" because you just chuck the whole thing away... the entire diaper is disposable. Like "Chix", "Chux" are very soft, and don't irritate tender skin.

EVEN THE DENNISON PEOPLE make a product. It's sort of like "Chix"... a diaper lining. So Chix, Chux or Dennison, you'll find it at Ballings.

WHILE WE'RE ON THE SUBJECT of going places in cars (and it looks like the vacation and travel season is starting early this year), maybe you'd better start thinking about a Car Bed. Now there's another thing that has improved with the generation. My folks carried me around in a basket, like Moses. Of course it had to be big bow ribbon on the handle, but it wasn't anything like the Car Bed. The Car Bed is a little "convertible." You can hang it over the back of the front seat so that you can drive with both hands, and then you can carry it into the house, or hotel, and set it on the floor without waking up the baby at all. The Car Bed is $8.50.

IF HE'S A BOY, and too old for a Car Bed, I'm pleased to announce that we've just received some cute little washable bib shorts, $1.95... and some wash suits with white shirts and colored short pants. They're $2.95. They'll be nice for these warm days ahead. But shucks, there are just hundreds of nice things for both boys and girls, at the Balling Baby Shop, 401½ South Myrtle Avenue, Monrovia.

Lions Enthusiastic Over Fiesta Days

Clarence Romer, a tool and die manufacturer and Clarence Eckerman of Topper Cleaners were introduced as new members. Marion Hinton, recently returned from the Canal Zone, Panama, who has been a charter member-at-large of the local Lions club is now an active member.

Merian Gotcher was invited to take a bow as the proud father of a son born recently.

This evening Pioneer and Homecoming Days committee will meet at the Woman's Club House with Jos. Bren, of Entertainment Features and with the queen candidates.

Plans were announced of the sponsorship of the new Sea Scouts which will be organized at the school auditorium, Monday evening, April 14. The club voted to purchase uniforms for the Skipper, Harold Stitt.

POLICE BLOTTER

A suspicious car at the pumping plant. . . A broken window gave the appearance of having been in the course of a flying baseball. . . A sick man down on the sidewalk. Rushed to the doctor's office. . . Barking dog. . . Lost ration book, a stolen bike, and some more bikes stolen. All recovered. . . Boys shooting air rifles. . . First she called about him and then he called about her. "Same old story" wrote the investigating officer. . . Something under the "Red Cross" house. Rutledge looked, but neither saw nor heard. He probably scared it to death.

Found dog . . . Boys' clothing found in a vacant lot. Boy found later. . . A prowler. Again. In unison with the clock. . . An argument that reached a loud stage was too much for the neighbors. Cops were called. . . Schoolboys molesting school girls. That's been going on for years. . . A former tenant returns to find she no longer had a space. She planted herself. Almost rooted, she finally wilted and left. . . Boys getting in an early spring swim were chased from the cold waters of the reservoir on the former Vogel Estate. "Too cold for me!" said the cop.

A dog killed by a hit and run driver. . . More mail box mischief. . . When Al Myers looked out over the front yard fence. Sunday morning he spied a beautiful yellow taxi-cab parked in front of his home. Investigation proved the cab to have been stolen the evening before and abandoned here. . . When one woman got angry enough to throw a stone at another, the stone took a wide sweep and went through a glass window. At that it didn't miss too far. . . After Bobby Clarke had gone to a lot of trouble to prepare rubbish barrels at his establishment, he was very much disappointed when he found that some culprit had stolen them. After he had painted them so pretty, too. . . A resuscitator call.

The BLOTTER contains many gripes about many things that have been too many times repeated. . . A few traffic citations. If drivers fail to heed the pleas of the officers and continue to violate minor rules, they can expect to get citations. Drive carefully. Our streets are busy. STOP, LOOK and LISTEN.

Edison to Issue New Stock Classes

Following a public hearing in Los Angeles last week, the Public Utilities Commission of California ruled favorably on the application of the Southern California Edison Company Ltd., to issue two new classes of preferred stocks in connection with the company's plan of exchange or call of all of its presently outstanding Preferred Series B 6 percent stock and Series C 5 1/2 percent stock. The Commission at the same time issued an order exempting the new securities from the Commission's competitive bidding rule.

Approval by the Public Utilities Commission paves the way for the solicitation of proxies by the company for the special stockholders meetings on May 6 to authorize changes in the Articles of Incorporation to put the plan into effect.

Mrs. Louis Karpf

Funeral services for Mrs. Louis Karpf a former Sierra Madrean were held Tuesday afternoon at the Home of Peace in Los Angeles. Mrs. Karpf was returning to her home in Los Angeles from an Eastern trip and passed away on the "Chief" at San Bernardino. Her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Leavay was at the station to meet her mother in L. A. and knew nothing of the occurrence until the train arrived at the station and she made inquiry when her mother failed to appear.

Mrs. Karpf had wired Dr. George Groth that she wished him to see her as soon after her arrival as possible that she was not feeling well.

The Karpf family lived for many years on Grandview, coming to the city about 1920. Mrs. Karpf is survived by a son, Stanton Karpf, daughters, Mrs. Rose Stine and Mrs. Abe Toplet all of the metropolitan area.

In 1897... when the first glass of Eastside beer was brewed, Los Angeles proudly boasted a population of 97,000 persons. An authentic estimate of population today (based on a count by special U. S. Los Angeles Brewing Company, where Eastside beer is brewed, is erecting new buildings, enlarging its capacity, as rapidly as present scarcities and restrictions permit—to supply this greatly-increased demand.

But quantity to us at Eastside is of secondary importance. For fifty years Eastside has been true to its traditions. Quality first—and always.

ARMY WEEK

Continuing throughout this week, every community in the United States is paying honor to the military service as we observe "Army Week".

In 1928, the Military Order of the World War, an organization of commissioned officers who served in Army units in the first World War, inaugurated the annual observance of Army Day on April 6, the date of America's entry into the first world conflict.

Inasmuch as that date, this year, fell on Easter Sunday, the observance began on Monday and for the first time will cover a full week's period.

The United States Army played a major part in development of the West. When frontiers were being pushed Westward, it was Army engineers who built roads, widened river channels, dug canals, maintained lighthouse service and made early topographic and geodetic surveys.

In honoring the peacetime record of the Army, together with its brilliant combat record, this Nation is paying tribute to the men in uniform whom General Dwight D. Eisenhower recently termed "the greatest single motivating power for World Peace."

Mark Welsers Celebrate 60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Mark D. Welscher of 542 Ramona, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary Palm Sunday with a small group of close friends.

Mr. Welscher, who is 86, established himself in the grocery and meat business in Sierra Madre in 1909 and was active until 1928 when he retired.

Originally his firm was located on the corner of Sierra Madre Boulevard and Baldwin Avenue where his "overhead," he reports, was the Town Hall.

Mrs. Welscher was closely associated with the local Red Cross chapter. During the first World War she began to transcribe books in Braille for the blind. She has books in the Library of Congress, Washington, D. C. and the State Library in Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. Welscher both express themselves as surprised at the 60th anniversary creeping up on them. Mrs. Welscher says she can't recall what the symbol for the sexagenary anniversary should be, but professes herself happy with bouquets of flowers from thoughtful friends.

FIRE FLAMES

A goodly number of children (kiddies) were present at the annual Easter Egg Rolling Party at our City Park last Saturday. This Party is presented by the Firemen and is financed from the Christmas Dance and Card Party Funds. As is usually the case, the boys in uniform attracted some attention from the small "tykes" and even tho' we do say so, the boys looked nice in the blues.

The winners of the many contests should be somewhere or elsewhere. Not as many children appeared as were expected and still there were many. If all reports are true, we can look forward to a substantial increase in the coming years.

Restraining all temptations to ballyhoo and shout in order to get drivers of cars to park conveniently, the firemen at the Wistaria Fete have been carrying a calm and cool attitude with only the swinging of arms to direct. Even this does not influence some of the visitors who can always find a more convenient place to park.

The fellows have been having loads of fun and doing a good job at the same time. The necessity of many men to control the placing of cars to the advantage of all has been definitely proven. Since the firemen have taken over this end of the Fete, there has been little confusion in the parking lots.

Several of the men arose early on Easter Morn and got to the lot in time to prevent a traffic tie-up. Even tho' there before daylight, there were several cars already parked to block entrance. This had to be untangled before the many more could enter.

If it rains again, the ground may soften for you to dig up the weeds and turn 'em over. Unless you do it now, or unless it rains, the job will not be easy. Even Leslie's mules object to plowing up hard ground. The height of some of the weeds, oats, barley and other inflammables when dry, is sufficient to be thinkin' of the danger and of a riddance. If turned under, most of the growth is beneficial to the earth. If allowed to dry, it only benefits the fire hazard. Growth around an incinerator makes that good incinerator a hazard.

We urge home owners to start getting the yard cleaned of all materials that are going to be a menace soon. Our dry season comes upon us so suddenly. It is so easy to prolong the agony of cleaning up. (We are all alike.) It is necessary if we want to continue our good low fire loss record.

And now since the Easter Party is over, the minds of firemen are turned to the annual State Firemen's Convention which will be held this year away up north of the State. Plans and hopes are being laid by those few who usually enjoy the trek to the Convention. The longer the ride, the more the pleasure. Ain't that the truth? Most of us are like that, only we don't want to be too frank. What harm can come from enjoyment? There is far too little of it. What would a fire department, of the kind we are, be without the fun in connection?

The town can expect a noisy department from those who leave for convention sometime in the late summer.

This will be regular drill week. Tomorrow evening, the gathering will have some secrecy attached. Tricks may enter into plans as to how to save time in drill. The decision as to the winners of the drill contest is nearing and to win is a strong desire of either side. It little matters who might be the winner, there will be a good time had by all when the time comes for the feed. (And it is hoped, by all means, that the reporter is included.) And while we drill and drill, we ask the folks of the city to help us to keep the FIRES OUT.

* 20 to 1
he cooked it with GAS

A FUSSY MAN IS THE CHEF... his cooking temperatures must be just so! And 20 to 1* he cooks with Gas. Flame-perfect and flexible as only Gas heat can be... gentle simmer-burner... speedy short orders... circulated oven heat... real live-flame broiling! No wonder it's "20 to 1!"

*In fact, gas cooking is used in more than 95 percent of all the homes and restaurants within reach of Southern California and Southern Counties Gas Company systems.

Bigelow And Osgood To Commission

The appointments of Bayard Bigelow, 47 Auburn St., and Sally Osgood, 617 W. Montecito, incumbent, to the Planning Commission were announced by Mayor J. Milton Steinberger, Tuesday night at the regular meeting of the City Council.

A petition signed by 18 City employees asking a minimum pay raise of $20 was put before the Council and decision was made to call a special meeting for next Tuesday with department heads and employees.

An estimate of $474.00 submitted by Al Myers for installation of a signal system at the Auburn and Miramonte reservoirs was approved. Water Superintendent Joe Swanson said no signal system was anticipated for the Grove street reservoir.

Morris Yasskin, 391 North Auburn, appeared before the Council with a petition asking the abandonment of an alley running behind residences of the 300 block on Auburn.

Mr. Yasskin claimed that flood damage from the alley was evident in backyards of several residences.

According to City Attorney Thomas Reynolds, the City could not abandon the alley, but would have to advertise it and sell to the highest bidder. The petition was referred to committee.

Superintendent Swanson was authorized to have blue prints made of changes necessary for electrical equipment at the central pumping plant. The estimate for the job was approximately $75, with the work to go to Carl Herkelrath Co. of Pasadena.

A letter from the Forest Service asking if 160 acres of City-owned land in the Little Santa Anita were now purchasable by the Service, was referred to committee.

Police Chief Gordon McMillan appeared before the Council to discuss the need for a Prosecuting Attorney in occasional cases of violation of city ordinances. City Attorney Reynolds was appointed prosecutor in the forthcoming case against Minnie Davis of 150 West Grandview, scheduled for April 14 at 10 a. m.

Total approved expenditures for the two week period were $7,491.11 of which the City's share was $6,925.23 and the Library's $565.88.

SERVICES FOR LOUIS CORTI
worked in it as long as he was able.

His character and temperament, in spite of his illness and nearly eighty years, were of such a happy, genial nature, wittily-wise and lightly touched with irony, that he seemed to persons half his age to be their contemporary.

He had the Latin's "sense of proportion" and was a master of the light touch in use of words. To most persons who knew him he was what the Italians call "simpatico", and individuals of all classes responded to him with an instant friendliness, which deepened with closer acquaintance. But perhaps most of all it was his gentleness, tolerance and good humor for which his many friends will cherish his memory so long as memory lasts.

Joy IN OUR Job

Call it idealism, if you will. But the fact that we find pleasure in the compounding of prescriptions is your assurance of a task capably and conscientiously performed. And isn't that rather important to you at a time when illness comes? Think it over—and make a mental note to bring your next prescription to this "Reliable" Pharmacy for expert compounding.
